

Frequently Asked Questions About the Resident Manager (RM) Position

1. Why become a RM?

- To get to know more people in the apartment community
- Learn about the resources available in the community
- Gain confidence in speaking in front of groups
- Develop leadership skills

2. What is my compensation?

- The RM receives free rent for his/her bedroom in the apartment.

3. What duties does the job entail?

- The main role of the RM is to be a resource person within the apartment community. You are also required to assist facilitate building administration during break periods, and enforce housing policy. Much of your work as a RM will happen in the evening, so you need to commit to being available in the evenings as much as possible.

4. What do I have to do while on duty?

- You are required to be in the building while you are on duty. You will complete rounds, check doors and address any situations that may arise.